David was very friendly and personable with the children. He initiated conversation with other staff members. He engaged the students in conversations during in the kindergarten room and was happy to be part of the daily routines. He enjoyed being around the students and the children were happy to talk to him.

David arrived on time or earlier every day he was assigned to our school. He consistently dressed professionally. David was happy to accept any tasks asked of him and completed them effectively. He was very enthusiastic to be in a school setting; he asked questions and displayed maturity towards the job. David was very respectful to all staff members and students.

David was very respectful to all staff members and students.

I truly enjoyed having David work in our room. He is well on his way to becoming a fine educator!
